

PART A Communication

- Eye contact, voice modulation, body language was effective
- Clear language and terminology, jargon-free, and understandable to a general audience
- Logical sequence
- Adequate time on each element of their presentation
- Too long on one aspect or too rushed?

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

PART B Comprehension

- Clear outline of nature and purpose
- Anyone can understand the scholarly research being undertaken
- Fascinating or compelling aspects of the research is well stated
- Background well stated
- Significance of research well addressed
- Impact of results of the research, including conclusions and outcomes is well stated

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

PART C Engagement

- Engaging talk
- Audience attention was captured
- Enthusiasm of the presenter
- No trivialization or generalization
- Did it inspire you to want to learn more?

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

PART D Power Point

- Clear, legible, and concise

1 2 3 4 5

Total Points: A + B + C + D =